

Getry Agizah – a Short Biography

Getry Agizah Anguva is young a Kenyan woman, age 27, and the mother of a 4 year old daughter, Denah Khasiala. Getry is a Friend and a member of Kakamega Yearly Meeting.

As the Programmes Coordinator of Friends in Peace and Community Development (FPCD) Getry is in charge of organizing and coordinating AVP and HROC workshops at the Friends Peace Centre in Lubao near Kakamega, Kenya. She has conducted over 100 such workshops. Getry is the coordinator of AGLI's summer workcamps at Lubao. She serves as the host for visitors and workshop facilitators/participants who visit the Peace Centre.

Getry has also volunteered with the Uzima Foundation doing documentation and training youth about reproductive health and gender based violence. An outgoing woman, Getry enjoys visiting and adventuring, making new friends and socializing. A very committed peace worker, Getry says that she likes "helping out people who are in need" to her "capacity".